

I listen to K-LOVE radio in my house and car and appreciate its Christian content. I believe this K-LOVE station provides good service to our community with its Christian programming. If this station was replaced by an LPFM station that has other programming then I believe our community would lose the benefit of the wholesome nature that K-LOVE currently provides.